Finding the Next Generation of Heroes

In my life I’ve often been the recipient of good karma. It seems like pure luck falling from the sky, or wherever it comes from. It happened recently when a group of students approached the League wanting to use us as their subject for a class assignment. For an investment of a few hours of our time, LWV-TX Board and Austin League member Grace Chimene and I received a huge windfall.

The student team helped us put a name on what we are all striving to do: Find the Next Generation of Heroes. Noting that the "League has been one of the most formidable forces of citizen empowerment," the team saw our numbers have dwindled since the 1960s and we need to pass the torch to what appears to be one of the least politically active generations, ever. They pin our vigorous survival on three groups: our active membership, millennials, and Hispanic/Latino eligible voters. They suggest we must engage them both in-person and digitally.

Thank you team leader Erik Vagshenian for your insightful report and suggestions. I’m happy to report that we are already lighting that torch!

Save the Date for a Special September 18, 2016 League Kickoff Meeting
The annual meeting to preview the 2016 - 2017 League year is one you will remember for the rest of the year! We are very proud it is being planned and executed in collaboration with several university organizations and will be hosted in the Bass Lecture Hall in the LBJ School Building/LBJ Library on the UT Campus.

Doors open at 1:30 pm for pre-program mingling and refreshments. Student organizations will also be sharing information about their activities. This year the program from 2-4 pm features three outstanding speakers who will address voting rights in the US and Texas. UT Law School's American Constitution Society (ACS) assisted us by arranging for Nancy Abudu, Director of Legal Operations for ACLU in Florida, and Chad Dunn, chief litigator for plaintiffs in the recently decided Texas Voter ID Case, to inform us.

Rounding out the group is Cassandra Champion of the Texas Civil Rights Project who works on Texas Motor Voter Act voter registration enforcement.

LBJ School organizations, including the Feminist Policy Alliance and the Public Affairs Alliance for Communities of Color, are actively involved in planning and executing the event with us, and serve as our hosts on campus. You can see that we are already finding that next generation!

Following this excellent group of speakers, from 4-5 pm Travis County Tax Assessor-Collector/Voter Registrar and valued League member Bruce Elfant will lead an optional Volunteer Deputy Registrar training session open to League Members, students, and anyone else interested in becoming a VDR.

Energetically Living Up to Our Previous Generation of Heroes
As you already know if you are following us on Facebook or checking the website, LWV Austin is meeting the challenges of this election season. There is much activity to commend:

- Our Voter Registration Director June Conway is in hyper-drive setting up new and expanded voter registration events. She always needs more VDRs and volunteers, but has managed to collect quite a stable to assist her. All those VDR "roundups" have paid off!
- Our new Communications Director Charlotte Slack is leading the way for more, better, and improved communication about what we are doing and sharing that with a greater audience. She is also supervising the most important task of updating our contact lists, which will enhance everything we do.
- Our VP of Programs Lea Masiello has already got a dynamite October General Meeting program planned to get us inspired and equipped for community Get Out the Vote efforts.
- Our VP of Voters Service Jacklyn Williams continues to lead outreach to high school and other students through our collaboration with Travis County's FIRST

Carolyn Baker, a long-time member of the LWV Austin Area, passed away peacefully on July 23 at the age of 89. She served on the LWV Austin Area board for many years, as VP - Community Relations, head of our Speakers Bureau, and was, unofficially, the Voter newsletter editor's editor. Carolyn was also the head of the Day unit.

Voters Service Update

The First Vote Team was busy this summer distributing information to teens through the Boys and Girls Clubs, Austin Homeschoolers, Parks and Recreation Centers and Religious Institutions. Schools are continuing to contact us for presentations and tabling at events, which included the Back to School Bash at Palmer Events Center recently. We have been sharing the Handy Dandy Guide For Voting in the November 8, 2016 Election which is an excellent tool created by LWVTX.

Thank you to Grace Chimene and Cinde Weatherby for their work to localize the information for Austin. You may want to pick up a copy because the information is valuable as you explain why it is important to vote and the process for voting. It includes such topics as:

- Can I Vote: How do I Register?
- When and Where do I Vote?
- What is the General Election and Why Vote?
- Texas Voter Resources

We also prepared instructions and materials for the October 4th Mock Presidential Election in Travis County High Schools and Elementary Schools. This election gives students the opportunity, at an early age, to experience the process of electing a candidate. Teachers will take the students through the two-step process of registration and balloting. All students will get a registration card that they must present on Mock Election day in order to vote. The results will be aggregated with all participating schools and shown on Access TV. Visit the Travis County website www.traviscountytax.org to view the materials.

We are seeking volunteers to work with these programs. To volunteer contact June Conway jconway12@austin.rr.com or Jacklyn Williams jacklynwilliams@aol.com.

The Youth Cam PSA Video Contest deadline has been extended to September 21, 2016. This Public Service Announcement (PSA) video contest is open to Travis County high school students and is designed to promote voter registration and voter turnout at the polls, especially among young voters. LWV is a partner and we are seeking gift card donations for prizes for the winners. If you would like to contribute a gift card contact Jacklynwilliams@aol.com.

The contest theme is Register. Be Counted. Vote! and entrants must use the already developed logo (either the square or horizontal version) in their productions.

Prizes will be awarded on Thursday, October 1, at the Alamo Drafthouse Cinema on South Lamar.

National Voter Registration Day is Tuesday, September 27, 2016. This year we will continue our partnership with ACC to register at campus sites. In addition we have developed a new relationship with the National Federation for the Blind and will be doing a major voting rally and registration on National Voter

Making a legacy donation to the League of Women Voters of the Austin Area Education Fund in your will is among the easiest ways to offer support of the LWVAAEF's work for years to come.

We suggest the following language to include the Austin League Education Fund as a beneficiary of a will or trust:

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the League of Women Voters of the Austin Area Education Fund, a charitable organization formed in the State of Texas, with offices at 1011 W. 31st St, Austin, Texas 78705, (the sum of $___) (%___ percentage of my residuary estate)." If you already have a will, you can have your attorney add a codicil to include the LWVAAEF.

After you've added the League, please email the Austin League office, lwvaustin@lwvaustin.org, so we can list you as a member of our League's Legacy Society.
Registration Day and October 1. More details to come.

Be sure to sign up for a voter registration drive. If you want a fun time sign up for the Texas Craft Brewers Festival site on September 24th.

We are also preparing for Candidate Forums with the City Council election and possibly others. Our new Chair Carol Eckelcamp and Frances McIntyre are busy getting things ready for September.

Voter Registration Events

We staffed a festival at Givens Park on July 16th for CAKE (Creativity/Abundance/Knowledge/Evaluations), an organization working to empower women and girls through music and the performing arts. We didn’t capture many new voters, but distributing information and promoting the LWV mission is our parallel goal and many of the folks attending expressed their appreciation for that. Tireless Cinde Weatherby and Saundra Ragona answered the call.

The Back to School Bash on August 6th at Parmer Events Center was a huge success. We harvested 55 new voters and voter updates, thanks to the enthusiasm of VDRs and LWV voters service activists and others who answered the call. Kudos to LWV members Mara Coleman, Elizabeth Cooper, Kathy Fitzgibbon, Cindy Hintikka, Katherine Hoffman, Mara Hoffman, Penny Koo, Lynn League, Miriam Mora, Cindy Schauffenbuel and our VDR partners Danielle, Bardgette, Char Dison and Laura Mohammad.

Live in an Apartment? Travis County Voter Registrar Bruce Elfant has sent a letter to Travis County Apartment Managers asking for their assistance by agreeing to conduct voter registration activities at their apartment complex. You can make this happen by making inquiries if no effort is forthcoming and offering to help if it is. Apartment-dweller voter registrations are way lower than single-occupancy. Get those numbers up in your complex!

Tuesday September 27th is "National Voter Registration Day". The LWVAA can't be everywhere but any member VDR can orchestrate a "do-it-yourself" VR event. Let me know if you have a target location and I'll see that you have guidance and the where-with-all to put it together. Let's go leagueniks! It's what we do!

Some members are doing their own thing, registering voters in neighborhood, church, school, workplaces. Let us know how many you've harvested! The LWV-TX is asking for numbers and we need to hear from you and give you credit. (Don’t be shy.) You have all also received from Bruce Elfant's office the targets for September which is Voter Registration Month. Join in that effort and send us the results.

See the schedule of Voter Registration Events in the Calendar above. You VDRs are needed and even members who haven't been deputized can 'woman' the station, answer question, and distribute voter information, so c'mon!

~ June Conway,
Voter Registration Director
jconway12@austin.rr.com

Volunteer Deputy Registration Training

Volunteers needed to become Volunteer Deputy Registrars. VDRs help register eligible citizens to vote by distributing, reviewing, and accepting completed voter registration applications. This training must be repeated every two years. If you haven't been trained since January 1, 2015, for the term January 1, 2015 - December 31, 2016, new training is required.

You may become a VDR or renew eligibility by attending a one-hour training session held the first Tuesday of each month at 10:30 am, 12:30 pm and 6:30 pm. Training is at the Travis County Voter Registrar’s office located at 5501 Airport Blvd, [map] Austin, TX 78751. Upcoming dates are Tuesdays, September 6 and October 4.

Bruce Elfant, our Travis County Voter Registrar, offers extra VDR training the second Saturday of each month from 10:00 - 11:30 am. (usually ends at 11:15 am). The next sessions will be September 17 and October 15 at the First Unitarian Universalist Church, 4700 Grover, [map] Austin. Space is limited. Sign up at this link.

If you are interested in being a VDR in Williamson Co., they accept the training offered in Travis County.

Voter Registration Director

Programs: What to Look for this Year

Get Out the Vote!
Programs are just getting lined up for the coming year. The immediate goals is to help Voters Service chairs with registration drives in order to Get Out the Vote! Please take a look at the list of registration events and find at least one that fits your schedule. Everyone can find something to do to help increase voter participation this November. Take a look at the Texas State League of Women Voters’ materials for GOTV (lwvtexas.org), many of which were created by Grace Chimene. And if you are not already a Volunteer Deputy Registrar, be sure to put that on your "to do list" to take the VDR training at the Kickoff meeting in September, so you can leave with your VDR button! We need to think both short and long term with GOTV. Getting more people registered and to the polls for this year’s election is important, as well as working to change voter participation over the long term.

Partnerships to increase Value of Voting

I am in the process of planning a general meeting for October 2 to help us connect with some local organizations that work with populations typically underrepresented at the polls. One goal is for us to learn about how we can partner with them to increase citizen participation in voting and provide education about the importance and value of voting for their communities to get to the polls on election days. We should also become more informed about what organizations such as Foundation Communities, El Buen Samaritano, and many others, actually do, and how we can support their work. Building more local connections and collaboration will help us in both areas. Look for more information about the GOTV meeting and workshop to make sure that we all know as much as we can about strategies to make a difference this fall.

Redistricting through an Independent Citizen’s Committee

After the election, it will be time to start planning a state study on the role of independent citizens’ committees in redistricting. Materials for this study should be available later this year or in early 2017.

Ladders of Opportunity

After January, we will resume programs on Ladders of Opportunity, our efforts to learn more about how local organizations are helping to provide more support for families and individuals educationally, economically, and culturally. These Ladders of Opportunity meetings will include smaller meetings that are known in the League as “unit meetings.” If you would like to host a unit meeting, sometime during January through May, please let me know.

Unit Meetings

There have been requests to do more with "Unit meetings,” small group meetings on topics in which the membership is interested. For example, many members are concerned about our environment and the ways in which we are using--or overusing--our natural resources, especially water. Our immediate past president, Carol Olewin, is a member of the City of Austin Task Force on Flood Mitigation, and I hope to organize a meeting during which we can hear from this group.

As ever, I am going to need a lot of help with our programs. Please let me know if you would like to be on a program committee that will start meeting after our Kick-Off meeting. Send me an email at leamasiello@gmail.com or call me at 724-422-0938.

Maxine's Musings:

Presidential Politics

As we approach the November election, what are we to make of the current presidential campaigns? Most people I talk to regardless of party, are uneasy, even expressing disgust with the tone of the campaigns.

The League of Women Voters has always stood for good governance, an informed electorate, and fair election campaigns. It may be pie in the sky, but to achieve those goals, the League, local and state, conducts debates with all candidates invited.
Sometimes, we have been criticized for including so-called fringe candidates in those debates. I remember when Leslie Cochran, the homeless cross-dresser, who was an attraction on Congress and Sixth Street, ran for mayor twice. We included him in our debates on Access TV and he did an acceptable job. The first time, he came dressed, or undressed, in his usual street costume, which sort of unhinged us! The second time he ran, I was the debate moderator. He was more appropriately dressed then. After the debate he told me he was grateful to the League because it was the only organization that gave him the opportunity to participate!

Since 1952, I always enjoyed watching the presidential election campaigns and the debates unfold on TV, but I now find myself jaded. Current practice in national election debates are really not debates in the opinion of many, including me. In brief, debates are supposed to argue the pros and cons on issues. In recent years, they seem to have descended into more personal attacks, sometimes, vicious, against an opponent, often having nothing to do with the issues at hand, rather than discussing the differing points of view and offering possible solutions to problems we face. The candidates seem rarely to answer specific questions, but dance around them. Big promises are often made with no suggested ways to pay for them. I believe this makes voters ill-informed to make important decisions on the leadership of the country. LWVUS used to conduct the debates in the 1980's. We were selected because of our knowledge on how to conduct them with integrity and a non-biased approach. The League bowed out when the political parties and the media decided to alter the way the debates were conducted. This created a more biased approach and opened the door to the current attack syndrome. I still get questions from people asking why we no longer offer debates for presidential candidates, which they regarded as the best.

Then there are the usual pundits on TV arguing with each other, interrupting each other, and prognosticating what they think the future portends. Watching them can make one dizzy! Another problem: the moment a president is seated at her/his desk in the Oval office, the speculations begin on who will be running in four years that drags on and on!

I think it may have been Winston Churchill who said in a democracy, one muddles through! I think we will muddle through this one and I rely on Americans' common sense to make it right.
